Chinn Entry Seems Best at the Weights in Delmar Feature.

VIOLIN TO REPEAT IN FIRST.

Kingree May Win a Race From Frank Rice and Jake Ward at Six Furlongs-Triple Silver's Chance.

Just So, the leading speed dispenser of the China stable, should win a race today, though he is pitted against such good ones as Commodore, Miss Doyle and Rainland, A few months ago the Goldblatt entry would have been a short-priced favorite here, but he seems to be no longer the Rainland of the early part of the

At first blush, it would seem that the principal contention would be furnished by Commodore, but 123 pounds is more than any horse hereabouts can give to Just So at seven furlongs, Miss Doyle, with 195, will about take his measure showing that form and light weight are better than class and a package. Pretension is in new company, and will find it far different to the kind he has been beating. He will company, and win find it far different to the kind he has been beging. He will hardly do.

There is nothing here that can run away from Just So, and the distance is to his iking. He will probably be favorife, but is not adverse to winning at a short price.

Violin seems placed where she can add another to her series of victories. The weights are evenly allotted in the first lace, and Violin seems pounds the best. Bdith May and St. Flour ought to have a nice contest for the place with the chances in Edith's favor.

In the second race, Subador will be touted as the goods in the origina, package, but lack of record makes it impossible to select this one to be in the money, frank Rice will probably be well played, and kindred will go well here.

Triple Säver looks good enough to annex the final event, although Nolan's incient bread-winner, Pathos, will be in his immediate vicinity at the finish, Canyon is so consistently followed that there most be something in him, and he should show, Ethel's Pride is the best of the bunch which will contend for the honor of winning a 2-year-old selling race in the third event. A gold medal should go with each winning ticket on a 2-year-old selling tace. Avoid, Drummond and Worthington seem to be the placed horses in the fifth, and the gray may win.

THE REPUBLIC'S DAILY RACING FORM CHART ARLENA WINNER BY A NOSE

Lawson Filly Gets the Six Fur long Handicap, Defeating Monaco Maid and Zinda in a Driving Fmish.

Ariena demonstrated that she is about the lest 2-year-old filly now at Delmar by picking up 109 pounds and leading her field home in the handleap yesterday aft-

This event was at six furlongs, and the illy was giving from four to nincteen pounds to every horse in the race. She was favorite in the betting, opening at to 5 and closing at 9 to 5. Dave Stahl broke in front, but in a few strides Arlena was in front, and proceeded to open up a gap on her field.

Dave Stahl broke in front, but in a few strides Arlena was in front, and proceeded to open up a gap on her field. By the time a quarter of a mile had been run, three lengths separated her from Zinda, who was leading Monaco Maid by the same number of lengths. As they turned into the stretch, Arlena was still leading by a couple of lengths, while Monaco Maid had closed up on Zinda, and only a half a length separated her from the Hayes filly.

Half way down the stretch Arlena began to tire, and Zinda and Monaco Maid commenced to creep up on her. A sixteenth out, Arlena was only a short distance in front, while Zinda and the Maid were ranning nose and nose back of ner. From there on, it was a battle roval between the three, and Arlena just did last long enough to get the decision by a nose. Monaco Maid was only a head in front of Zinda.

Jake Greenberg scored a hollow victory in the fifth race, Jake outclassed his company and, after letting Lasso set the pace for a half mile on sufferance, went to the front and camered the rest of the way, winning under wraps. He is cherry ripe now, and it will take a mighty good horse to beat him. Flora Willoughby beat Pinochle a neck for the place.

Gradalquiver was favorite in the first race and was heavily played, being backed from 4 to 1 to 2 to 1. The best he could 40 was to finish third, however. Tattenham, the accound choice, and Escanaba both beat him. Tattenham was nicely rated along in third position to the stretch, where he went to the front and won pulled up by four lengths.

Trixie White was graduated from the moiden class in the second event, winning a handy victory over Korea and Land Lou. Her race was a great improvement over her last start, where she was beaten by a bunch of maidens.

Doctor Riley, held at 6 to 1 in the hetting, had no trouble in winning the third race, a six-furion affair for maidens. He broke in front of his field, set all the pace and was going away at the end. Ora Z., who had run in second position all the way, easily held that place to the en

JOHN TAYLOR WON FINAL HEAT OF THE 2:09 TROT.

Jack Axworthy Captured the Lexington Stake for Two-Year-Olds in Straight Heats From Bon Voyage.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12.—The two stake races on the card, the unfinished 2:09 trotting race of yesterday and two purse races, attracted an unusually large crowd to the trotting races to-day. John Taylor, the 2-to-5 favorite, won the unfinished 2:09 trotting race in the fourth heat easily. Six horses were ruled out of the fourth heat and only the three-heat winners of resterday were allowed to participate. Lisonjero, the favorite for the race, was Lisonjero, the layorite for the race, was given fourth entry.

The West, the $2,000 stake for 2:29 trotters, was won in three straight heats by John Caidwell, a hot favorite.

The Lexington Stake, worth $2,000 for 2-year, and instructions.

John Caidwell, a hot favorite.

The Lexington Stake, worth $2.00 for 2-year-old trotters, went to Jack Axworthy in two straight heats. Bon Voyage, the favorite in the race, on the strength of his winning the 2-year-old division of the Futurity, was formally transferred to W. A. Clark Jr. of Butte. Mont. inst before the race was called. Charles Marvin sold Bon Voyage to Clark the day he won the Futurity for $10.000. He apparently had each of the heats to-day won until the very finish. Bertha Bennett and Elmford divided third and fourth money.

The 206 class pacing was won in two straight heats by Sphinx.

Brownie Wilton, a prohibitive favorite, won the 2:19 class trotting in three straight heats. Morone, whose ownership was to-day transferred from C. R. Voorhels of Jerseyville, Ill., to Clark got third money.

After the last race, Gus Lacey started Country Jay an exhibition trotting mile under the saddle. He trotted the calle in 2:10, but the mark is not a record, as he did not carry the regulation weight of 150 pounds.

BROWNS AGAIN BEAT THE CARDINALS

Howell Bests Charley Nichols in Pitcher's Duel, Allowing Only Two Hits.

SHANNON'S GREAT CATCH.

Left Fielder Captures Hard Low Drive Off Moran's Bat in the Fifth Inning After Long Sprint.

McAleer's Browns beat Nichols's Car dinals in one of the most exciting and closely fought battles of the year at Sportsman's Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. This makes the series stand: Browns 2. Cardinals 1.

Not for a moment did the game lag or lack interest. The teams darted to their positions the minute the bell clanged an-nouncing the commencement of the game. sensational double play in the ninth in-ning, settling matters, the teams bitterly fought each other all the way.

It was a pitchers' battle of the keenes kind. Howell, opposing Nichols, allowed the "Kid's" comrades only two singles, while Charley's allotment to the Cardinals was four scattered hits.

UMPIRE MAKES BAD DECISION. Cardinal partisans claimed that two poor decisions by Umpire Hart cost them the game. Both decisions were made in the first inning. With one gone and Wal-lace on first, Farrell tossed the sphere to Shay. The ball caromed off Dan's glove before he could close his hands on it, end Burkett slid for the base. Jesse overreached the bag, and Shay, recovering the ball, rapidly dove for Jesse, touching him. From the stand it looked as though Shay had made the play, but Hart ruled otherwise. A few moments later, Tom Jones shot a fast single to left field. Shannon shot the sphere true to the plate. Burkett appeared to be in jeopardy when he bumped Grady, knocking him out of position for the throw, and the ball went to the grand stand, allowing Burkett and Wallace to score. Burkett should have been called out for interference, but Hart called him safe, allowing both runs to been called out for interference, but Hart called him safe, allowing both runs to score. The two runs gave to the Browns the game. Both pitchers received excellent support. Shay's error being the only misplay recorded on either side.

Howell, with his famous spit-ball delivery, had the Cardinals on his staff. He fanned six, and allowed two hits, but as he issued two passes and hit Snay, the issue was even, as Nichols did not allow a pass or make a pitcher's error of any kind.

The great rivalry between the teams was evident from the start. The players kept kidding each other all the distance, and wordy wars were frequent.

Shay was on his toes shouting and fighting in every inning. He faced Howell three times, but is not charged with a time at bat, as he walked once, sacrificed, and was hit by a pitched ball. Besides, he stole a base and scored the Cardinals' only run by a hair-breadth on a desperate slide to the plate on Farrell's single to left.

The work of the pitchers was so good that the fielders had very little opportunity to get in the game, but Farrell at second, for the Cardinals, showed good fielding form, while a grand one-hand stop by Charley Moran in the sixth inning prevented the Cardinals from tying the score.
